

LOCAL HEROES SAVING LIVES

Meet Jennifer

She is the definition of "Hero." She is an Orange County deputy sheriff who survived ten gunshot wounds in 2004 while saving three children.

Jennifer also quietly continues to save lives by regularly donating blood. Her O negative blood is the universal blood type, meaning any patient can receive her blood.

O negative blood is used to treat patients in emergency situations when time is critical.

A Place of Heroes

And

Make your organization a place of heroes:
1.888.9.DONATE | FloridasBloodCenters.org

