

LOCAL HEROES SAVING LIVES

Meet the Demings

You could call Orange County Sheriff Jerry Demings and Orlando Police Chief Val Demings the “First Couple of Law Enforcement.”

In August, they led the Battle of the Badges, a blood-drive competition which pitted sheriff’s departments against their police counterparts in Orange, Osceola and Seminole counties. The result: these agencies donated 3,593 units of blood for hospital patients.

Florida’s Blood Centers thanks Jerry and Val Demings for inspiring deputies, officers and citizens to become local heroes saving lives.
